

Dear JRP Parents,

Our next recital is this Sunday, April 28th at 2:15pm. It is held at Johns Creek Baptist Church in the Choir Suite. The address is: 6910 McGinnis Ferry Rd Alpharetta, GA

You will want to go into this door. Look for the big letter “A” on the brick. Once inside, there should be signage directing you to the Choir Suite. It is located in the basement of the building on the right. There is an elevator if needed.

I will start right at 2pm so we can stay within the rented time frame. There is plenty of seating for guests. I will be in the studio at 1:30 setting up chairs. One of the perks of using this space is that it has a set of back stairs. If you are running late, please wait until you hear applause and then enter the audience seating from the back of the room. I try very hard to keep the recitals to around 45 min therefore, staying in attendance to support others is expected.

In recent weeks, I have asked students to keep the following in mind:

- Dress up - nothing too fancy
- Cut fingernails - no polish please
- Bring music - even if it's memorized
- Wear hair away from face - so the audience can see the profile of your face
- Play in shoes that make sense - no crocs, cleats, or high heels
- Just keep going - jump ahead instead of restarting if necessary
- Don't forget to bow after playing the last piece - “did I tie my shoes today”

Thank you for the investment into your child's musical development. I am so proud of the Jana Ritchie Piano families!
